

Room151's LGPS Quarterly Webcast

26 July 2022 – Register here

Missed our last LGPS Quarterly Webcast? Watch it here

LGPS Housing Investment

Discussing income, inflation-protection, and impact strategies across housing investment strategies with local authorities, LGPS investors, independent advisors, and asset managers.

Agenda

10: 30 Welcome

Peter Findlay, Publisher, Room151

Scrutiny Panel:

William Bourne, founder, Linchpin

Elizabeth Carey, advisor, Bedfordshire Pension Fund

Aoifinn Devitt, CIO & independent adviser, Moneta

10.35 Investing in build-to-rent – impact & income

Build-to-rent developments are increasingly becoming the solution for many on modest incomes. How does this type of investment help the LGPS investor and how does it fit into the conversation around impact investing?

Emma Gullifer, fund manager, Columbia Threadneedle

Bola Tobun, finance manager (pensions & treasury), London Borough of Enfield

Dan Hawthorn, executive director of housing and social investment, Royal Borough of Kensington & Chelsea

11.05 Gradual homeownership & home equity – a new approach to inflation-proofing housing income

The issue of inflation has reared its head once more with no sign of it going away. Home equity solution based on gradual homeownership increasingly looks like a sensible answer for the institutional investor? How does it compare to other forms of housing investments and what unique solutions may it offer?

Adrian Jones, lead portfolio manager, infrastructure debt and home equity, Allianz Global Investors

Paul Guillotti, assistant director of resources (financial services), Richmond & Wandsworth Councils

Alistair Smith, head of real estate, Border to Coast

11.35 Close of webinar

Sponsored by.....

